

Yonkers Trot winner Top Flight Angel returns to town

by Frank Drucker, Publicity Director, Empire City at Yonkers Raceway

Yonkers, NY --- It's a homecoming weekend of sorts, with Yonkers Trot winner Top Flight Angel returning Saturday night (Sept. 23) as the conquering hero. He does so in the first division of Yonkers Raceway's $172,000 New York Sire Stakes Michael Sorentino Trot for 3-year-old colts and geldings.

A pair of groupings, at $85,250 and $86,750, respectively, go as the fourth and fifth races in an event named for one of the Raceway's long-time popular horse owners.

Mike Lizzi photo

Yonkers Trot winner Top Flight Angel returns for NYSS action on Saturday.

As if he needed the assistance, Top Flight Angel won the draw, with the Mr. (Andy Miller) driving for the Mrs. (Julie Miller). The son of 2012 Yonkers Trot winner Archangel grabbed the half-million-dollar Trot by a moist nose in 1:56.3. He then shuffled off to Batavia, airing in a NYSS event (1:54.3). For the season, the Legacy Standardbred (Alan Hainsworth) homebred has won four of his 13 starts and banked $362,016.

Brian Sears, Top Flight Angel's Trot date, tries to beat him this time around with Stick With Me Kid.

The Dewycheatumnhowe gelding, trained by George Ducharme, is also four-for-13 this season. He starts at the opposite end of the seven-horse gate.

Seven And Seven (George Brennan, post four) is Ontario-based trainer Tom Durand's first local visit since October 2013. The homebred (Mrs. Durand) son of Chapter Seven has been trying open stakes company for much of the summer, though his lone win was a Tioga sire stakes event.

Saturday's second Sorentino division includes Guardian Angel AS (Jason Bartlett, post three). The Archangel colt has won half of his 14 '17 tries and earned $153,143, though that may be overshadowed by breaks in the finals of both the Hambletonian and Yonkers Trot. Anette Lorenzton trains for co-owners ACL Stuteri AB and Kjell Johansson.

Swell Chap (Sears, post four) has come to hand late in the summer, entering with consecutive NYSS wins at Saratoga and Batavia. The son of Chapter Seven, trained by Todd Rooney, has hit the board in 11 of 13 starts this season and earned $157,451.

Saturday is the last of 16 sire stakes local legs, after which the judges tabulate the scores to see who's good enough for the $1.8 million Oct. 14 New York 'Day' of Champions. The eight $225,000 NYSS finals take place during Yonkers' $3.3 million International Trot matinee program.